

JOHN D. IS HOME
AFTER CELEBRATION

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 9.—John D. Rockefeller returned to Cleveland today, after celebrating his seventieth birthday by a mysterious trip to Pocomtoco Hills, his country place near New York. He spent only a few hours at Pocomtoco Hills, inspecting some improvements being made there.

KILLS STEPFATHER TO SAVE MOTHER

PATERSON, N. J., July 9.—Albert Ferro, twenty-one years old, shot and killed his stepfather, Emanuel Giglio, at their home, 23 Passaic street. "I shot him because he was a brute and ill-treated my mother," Ferro told a detective who captured him at the Passaic Falls grounds, to which he fled after the shooting. Giglio married Ferro's mother two weeks ago.

SUBDUED LIGHT FOR NAVY CADETS

Fixed chandeliers, with frosted globes and green tables will be provided for the middies at Annapolis by the Navy Department. In compliance with the recommendations of Medical Inspector Gatewood, who has been trying to ascertain the reason for the poor sight of the graduates of the naval school.

'TAR HEEL' EDUCATOR LANDS HIGH OFFICE

DENVER, Col., July 9.—James Tackin Joyner, superintendent of public instruction of North Carolina, is today the president of the National Education Association. His election over Ben Blewitthead, of the St. Louis school, is regarded as a victory for those who oppose regulation of the prices of school text-books.

DUKE NOW CHARGED AS ONE OF REGICIDES

MADRID, July 9.—The Portuguese Duke of Albuquerque was arrested here at the request of the Portuguese authorities and taken to Lisbon. The newspapers say the arrest was based on a charge of complicity in the assassination of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luis.

MORE CANDIDATES ENTER ANNAPOLIS

ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 9.—The following additional candidates were admitted as midshipmen today: Palmer H. Dunbar, Jr., Springfield, Mass.; Roger Williams, Dayton, Ohio. The governor made the following appointment today: John F. Wiley, a notary public for Baltimore county, to reside at Whitehall.

KILLED BY RUINS OF HIS FACTORY

NEW YORK, July 9.—Nathan Jastrow, a soda fountain manufacturer of East New York, was instantly killed under a falling wall of his factory today, when a tank of carbolic acid gas exploded, demolishing the factory. The explosion created a panic in the neighborhood.
